Arbitration Case Number 2292

Plaintiff: Bunge North America Inc., St. Louis, Mo.

Defendant: Lamont Davis, Dumas, Ark.

Factual and Procedural Background

The plaintiff, Bunge North America, Inc. (Bunge), requested the entry of a default judgment in the amount of $51,030 against the defendant, Lamont Davis (Davis). The default judgment was granted for the reasons set forth below.

Bunge submitted an arbitration complaint dated June 17, 2008 to the National Grain and Feed Association (NGFA). The complaint alleged that Davis failed to perform on duly signed Bunge contract number 95765 for delivery of soft red winter wheat and contract number 96165 for delivery of U.S. No. 1 yellow soybeans.

Each contract stated that it was, “SUBJECT TO RULES OF NATIONAL GRAIN AND FEED ASSOCIATION.” [Emphasis in original.] The contracts also contained the following provision under “GENERAL TERMS”:

“The terms of this confirmation are subject in all respects to the rules and regulations of the exchange, board, or association designated above. If Seller is not a member of the said exchange, board or association, then the rules and regulations of the National Grain and Feed Association shall govern. Buyer and Seller agree that all disputes and controversies between them with respect to this confirmation shall be arbitrated according to said rules and regulation, and that judgment may be entered on the arbitration award in any court of competent jurisdiction.”

Acting upon Bunge’s complaint, the NGFA prepared an arbitration services contract and submitted it to Bunge for execution. By certified mail dated June 24, 2008, the NGFA also sent to Davis a letter providing notice of these proceedings with copies of Bunge’s complaint and attachments, as well as the NGFA Trade Rules and Arbitration Rules. The certified mail return receipt confirmed that this mailing to Davis was signed for and received on June 27, 2008.

Upon receipt of the duly executed arbitration services contract from Bunge, the NGFA then sent it with accompanying correspondence to Davis by certified mail on July 11, 2008. The certified mail return receipt confirmed that this mailing to Davis was signed for and received on Aug. 14, 2008.

On or around Aug. 14, 2008, the NGFA received a voicemail from Davis requesting the plaintiff’s telephone number. A NGFA staff member returned his call giving him the requested information.

On Sept. 11, 2008, the NGFA sent another letter by certified mail. The certified mail return receipt confirmed that this mailing was signed for and received on Sept. 17, 2008. The NGFA’s letters of July 11 and Sept. 11, 2008 to Davis specifically provided notice that Sections 5(c) and (d) of the NGFA Arbitration Rules required that the signed contract be returned within fifteen (15) days.

After still not receiving an appropriate response from Davis, the NGFA sent yet another notice to him on Oct. 14, 2008 by certified mail. This notice further specifically stated as follows:

“NGFA Arbitration Rules 5(d) and (e) provide for the entry of a default judgment when a party fails to execute the arbitration contract and pay the service fee within fifteen (15) days. Based upon the lack of any response from you thus far, we must anticipate that you do not intend to respond. This is our last attempt to elicit a response from you. A default judgment may be entered against you at any time, which the Plaintiff may enforce in a court of law.” [Emphasis in original.]

The certified mail return receipt confirmed that this mailing was received by Davis on Oct. 21, 2008.

The NGFA has yet to receive an executed arbitration services contract from Davis, despite the repeated attempts by NGFA to contact him.

Default Judgment

The NGFA established jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to the express terms of the contracts and by way of Bunge's status as a NGFA active member.

Bunge properly and in a timely manner filed its complaint under NGFA Arbitration Rules Section 5(a). Pursuant to Section 5(b), the NGFA then submitted an arbitration services contract to the parties. Section 5(d) states that, "it shall be the duty of both parties to complete the contract for arbitration within fifteen (15) days from the date the party receives the contract from the National Secretary." Bunge properly executed and returned the arbitration services contract. Davis refused to comply with the NGFA Arbitration Rules, and refused to respond to any arbitration-related mailings.

NGFA Arbitration Rule Section 5(e) provides for the following:

"Where a party fails to pay the arbitration service fee and/or fails to execute the contract for arbitration, the National Secretary may without further submissions by the parties enter a default judgment or such other relief as the National Secretary deems appropriate."

As it appears that Lamont Davis made a conscious decision to disregard these arbitration proceedings, pursuant to Section 5(e) of the NGFA Arbitration Rules, the National Secretary finds that entry of default judgment against him is proper and warranted.

Therefore, on Feb. 25, 2009, the NGFA entered a default judgment against the defendant. The defendant also was advised that NGFA Arbitration Rule Section 5(e) sets forth the requirements and conditions under which, "[a]ny party against whom a default judgment has been entered under this provision may apply for vacation of the default judgment within fifteen (15) days of entry of the default judgment." In this case, the defendant did not apply to vacate the default judgment pursuant to Section 5(e).

The Award

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Bunge North America Inc. is awarded judgment against Lamont Davis for $51,030.
2. Interest on the judgment shall accrue at the statutory rate available for judgments in the applicable jurisdiction from this date until paid in full.
